Afterword

And, as always, I went to so many places and just devour down all the sweets.

Senko-san's anime's already started airing too.

I'm the creator "Rimu-chan".

Lately, I've been enjoying anime while working on the manuscript.

Thank you for buying volume four of "Senko-san"

I thought that while heading to the after recording studio.

"I can't survive without an actual Senko-san huh..."

And things have been getting busier and busier.

Senko-san's Secret

Food Offering to the Gods

Food that is left as offering for the Gods. This includes rice, sake, fish, and many others. Many people often offer up aburage at Inari Shrines.

They are enjoyed by those that participated in the offering,

But Senko-san often brings them back home to the Nakano household.
